RETHINK FOLLY ROAD STEERING COMMITTEE MINUTES FEBRUARY 14, 2018

Chair Bill Woolsey called the Rethink Folly Road Steering Committee to order at 3:30 p.m. at the Town of James Island Town Hall, 1238-B Camp Road, James Island, SC 29412.

I. Welcome

Chair Woolsey gave a brief welcome.

II. Public Comment

No one present provided comment.

III. Previous Meeting Minutes

Meeting minutes were approved by the Steering Committee

IV. SCDOT Speed Study Request Letter

-Chair Woolsey introduced a memo to request the reduction of speed along the Folly Road Corridor.

-Josh Johnson from SCDOT was in the audience and stated that the committee could continue with their recommendation/memo, but that since no new infrastructure changes have occurred since the previous study, a new speed study would not be warranted.

-The Committee requested that the speed request match the “best” scenario of the plan and it went with a unanimous approval.

Attached are both the letter from the Mayor to SCDOT and the response

V. New Time/Date/Frequency

-4th Wednesday was approved to hold the future RFR Steering Committee meetings.

-Motion to move meetings quarterly – failed

-Motion to move meetings every other month – approved unanimously

VI. Review of Steering Committee Recommendation Items

-The conversation focused on how to find, fund, and hire a Project Manager.

-Subcommittee formed and tasked with providing information on a Project Manager during the April 2018 meeting.
